

Larry Thomas received MA and MFA degrees in printmaking and drawing from the University of Iowa. He's been in over eighty regional, national, and international exhibitions and in more than seventy corporate, public, and private collections including the Daum Museum of Contemporary Art and the Nerman Museum of Contemporary Art. He is a retired professor and taught for 40 years at 3 different college. The last 25 years were in the Fine Arts Department at Johnson County Community College, Overland Park, KS. He is represented by the Sherry Leedy Contemporary Art Gallery in Kansas City, MO.