

Artist Statement

larry@larrythomasart.com

www.larrythomasart.com

913.952.6199

At first glance my work might appear rather abstract. Closer inspection reveals glimpses, fragments, or passages of potentially more recognizable shapes. Using traditional mediums such as paint, printmaking and collage with the contemporary medium of digitally generated images, I like thinking about and researching perception, deception, secrets, code and camouflage, both visually and conceptually.